

PREPOSITIONS OF TIME

Dialogue 1

Context: Ordering food at a restaurant

Jack: Adam, that was a delicious meal at the restaurant. I always enjoy dining out with you.

Adam: Likewise, Jack. The food was excellent, and the atmosphere was so cozy.

Jack: I agree. The restaurant has a great ambiance. It's always a pleasure to be there.

Adam: Do you remember when we used to eat at this place once a week during our college days?

Jack: Yes, those were good times. We would always come here for our weekly catch-up sessions.

Adam: I miss those days when we would spend hours talking and laughing over a meal.

Jack: Me too, Adam. Life was simpler back then, but our friendship has remained strong.

Adam: It's amazing how much we've experienced together over the years.

Jack: I remember when we went on that road trip last summer. We had so much fun.

Adam: Oh yes, that was a memorable trip. We laughed, sang, and made unforgettable memories.

Jack: And remember that time when we got lost while hiking in the mountains?

Adam: Oh, how could I forget? It was quite an adventure. We found our way back eventually.

Jack: Those unexpected moments are what make our friendship special.

Adam: Definitely. We've been through thick and thin together.

Jack: And we've always been there for each other, before and after any challenging situation.

Adam: That's true. Our bond is unbreakable.

Jack: I appreciate how you've always supported me, Adam, especially during difficult times.

Adam: Likewise, Jack. You've been a pillar of strength for me as well.

Jack: We've grown together and learned so much from each other.

Adam: I'm grateful for our friendship, Jack. It's a treasure in my life.

Jack: Me too, Adam. Friends like you are rare and precious.

Adam: Let's make a promise to continue creating wonderful memories together.

Jack: Absolutely. I look forward to many more adventures and shared experiences.

Adam: Happy for our friendship, Jack. Here's to a lifetime of laughter and friendship.

Jack: Hopefully, Adam. To us, and the amazing journey we've had and will continue to have.

Dialogue 2

Context: Ordering food at a restaurant

David: Mom, I'm really hungry. Shall we go to our favorite restaurant for dinner tonight?

Lily: That sounds like a great idea, David. We always have a wonderful time there.

David: I remember when we used to go there once a week when I was younger.

Lily: Yes, those were special moments. It was our weekly tradition.

David: I miss those times when we would sit together, enjoy a delicious meal, and talk about our day.

Lily: Me too, David. We've shared so many stories and laughs during those dinners.

David: I'm glad we still make it a point to have these dinners together, even if it's not as frequent as before.

Lily: Absolutely, the quality time we spend together is what matters the most.

David: Mom, do you remember when we discovered that restaurant?

Lily: Yes, it was a few years ago. We stumbled upon it while walking through the neighborhood.

David: I'm grateful we found it. The food is always delicious, and the service is exceptional.

Lily: And the cozy atmosphere makes it even better. It feels like a home away from home.

David: I agree. I love how we can have uninterrupted conversations while enjoying our meal.

Lily: That's one of the reasons why I cherish these dinners with you, David. It's a chance to catch up.

David: It's nice to disconnect from our busy lives and just focus on each other during these dinners.

Lily: I couldn't agree more. It's during these moments that I truly appreciate our bond.

David: And then there are those times when we've celebrated special occasions at the restaurant.

Lily: Yes, we've had birthday dinners and even celebrated your graduation there.

David: Those celebrations have always been memorable. It's a place filled with happy memories.

Lily: I'm glad we're heading there tonight. It's going to be another wonderful evening together.

David: I'm looking forward to it, Mom. I can already imagine the delicious food we'll be enjoying.

Lily: Me too, David. It's going to be a great evening of good food and even better company.

David: Thank you for always being there for me, Mom. These dinners mean a lot to me.

Lily: You're welcome, David. I treasure our moments together too. Let's make tonight one to remember.

David: Absolutely, Mom. Here's to our special dinners and the love we share.

Lily: Dear son.. May our bond grow stronger with each passing moment.

Dialogue 3

Context: Ordering food at a restaurant

Mariam: Eva, it's so nice to catch up with you. We should do this more often.

Eva: I completely agree, Mariam. I always look forward to our coffee dates.

Mariam: Remember when we used to meet up once a week at this café?

Eva: Yes, those were the days. We would always have the best conversations here.

Mariam: I miss those times when we would sit for hours, sipping our drinks, and sharing stories.

Eva: Me too, Mariam. We've had so many laughs and deep conversations during those café sessions.

Mariam: I'm glad we're making time for this today. It's nice to be here with you.

Eva: Absolutely, Mariam. These moments together are precious.

Mariam: Do you remember when we first discovered this café?

Eva: Yes, it was a while ago. We stumbled upon it while exploring the neighborhood.

Mariam: I'm grateful we found it. The cozy atmosphere and the aroma of coffee are so inviting.

Eva: And the baristas here always make the best cappuccinos.

Mariam: Agreed, their attention to detail is remarkable. The foam art is always impressive.

Eva: I love how we can sit in this corner booth and have uninterrupted conversations.

Mariam: It's the perfect spot. We can talk about anything and everything.

Eva: That's one of the reasons why I cherish our café meetups, Mariam. We can be ourselves.

Mariam: I couldn't agree more, Eva. It's during these moments that our friendship truly shines.

Eva: And then there are those times when we've celebrated special occasions here.

Mariam: Yes, we've had birthday gatherings and even toasted to new beginnings.

Eva: Those celebrations have always been memorable. The café adds an extra touch of joy.

Mariam: I'm glad we're here today, Eva. It feels like a mini celebration in itself.

Eva: I feel the same way, Mariam. It's a lovely way to spend the afternoon.

Mariam: Thank you for always being there for me, Eva. Our café meetups mean the world to me.

Eva: You're welcome, Mariam. I enjoy our moments together too. Here's to many more café adventures.

Mariam: May our friendship continue to grow over cups of coffee and heartfelt conversations.
